

Natalie Laspina

BAND STORY

"Natalie moved to NYC in 2005 to pursue her career in acting/modeling/singing. Her experience includes work in Independent Films, Television Series, Commercial, Print, Runway, Catalog and Music Videos. Her beautiful and exotic look combined with her emotional range and unique vocal sound really makes her stand out as an artist. Music has always been a huge part of Natalie's life ever since she was a little girl. Her father is a renown Jazz musician, so this influenced Natalie quite a bit. She taught herself piano and drums at an early age and continued to sing and perform from then on. Her music incorporates both pop and jazz qualities with an edge. Among her 9 lead roles in Independent Films Natalie has also made appearances in such television series as Damages, Rescue Me, Law And Order: CI and Law And Order: SVU. She has also recently shot a syndicated news segment for Clairol & Oil of Olay beauty products as well as a nationwide ad campaign for Match.com and 'OFF' Bug Spray. Natalie has had extensive training at The School For Film And Television in on camera work, scene study and improv. She is looking to book work on Soaps, Primetime Series and Feature Films. She is an experienced, well trained and professional actress with goals to continue working in the industry bringing every role she takes on to life. "
